My day to day is just the same as it has been, always Dreaming of you then waking, with no one
I'm dreamin' bout your name
And making ours the same

And how about your love, love? Yeahhh
I'm dreamin' bout your love, love. Ohhhh ohhhh

Maybe tomorrow'll be another day spent, oh ohhh.
Dreaming of you then waking, with no one, doo doo doo doo.
I'm longing for your touch
And thinking bout your smile

And how about your love, love? Yeahhh
I'm dreamin' bout your love, love. Ohhh
The hardest thing I've ever had to tell me
Was that I would have to wait for your love
I'm wondering if you're somewhere sitting patient
So I can say this looking deep into your eyes, your eyes.

I'm dreamin' bout your love, love. Yeahhh.
I'm dreamin' bout your love, your love.
Dreamin' bout your love, your love, your loooooove.
Dreamin' bout your love, your love, your loooooove.
Dreamin' bout your love da da da.
