Please don't leave me out here
Out here in this storm
I can't stand it
Can't weather the storm
No shelter's big enough
To protect my broken heart
So don't leave me through this storm

I can't stand it
Can't weather the storm
No shelter's big enough
To protect my broken heart
So don't leave me through this storm

I want you more than you could know
I been too afraid to let it show
I been hurt before
I let down my guard
Then I let it go too far
I wish I knew then what I know now
Maybe my mistakes will help me out
Can't let it keep me down

Cuz when it rains it pours
It keeps falling
Feels like it won't stop
Trying to keep my head above the water
I got caught up in this thing called love
Cuz when it rains there'll come a storm
I know I feel it coming on
So baby please don't go

Please don't leave me out here
Out here in this storm (in this storm)
I can't stand it
Can't weather the storm (storm)
No shelter's big enough
To protect my broken heart

Ooh, I want to tell you from my heart
How much it hurts to let you leave
Wanted you for me

Couldn't let you see my tears
So I pushed you away
I wish you saw right through this pain
And helped me another day
Today is gonna rain

Cuz when it rains it pours
It keeps falling
Trying to keep my head above the water
I got caught up in this thing called love
And when it rains there'll come a storm
So baby don't you go

Please don't leave me out here
Out here in this storm (in this storm, whoa)
I can't stand it
Can't weather the storm (can't weather the storm, oh)
No shelter's big enough (enough)
To protect my broken heart (my heart)
So lead me through the storm

I can't stand it
Can't weather the storm (no, no, I can't)
No shelter's big enough
To protect my broken heart
Don't leave me through the storm
