If loving you was easy baby then you made it harder
I done trying to bound everything and still I get no further

You lie to me and make me be like I love you Now I'm nothing nice I'm cold as ice in the dead of winter

My head is going crazy baby tryin' to figure it out
So confuse I can't get striaght I think I'm losing myself now

You cried out for me and made me feel like I love you Now I'm nothing nice I'm cold as ice in the dead of
winter

[Chorus]

You were my summer now here comes the fall
I used to want you but now not at all
But now that it's winter now that you're gone
I'm so cold, so cold

You were my summer now here comes the rain
Wanted to love you but never again
But now that it's winter now that you're gone
I'm so cold, so cold

If loving you was easy baby then you made me a failure
I done trying to bound everything and still I don't know you

It's so hard to sleep in an empty bed without you Now I'm nothing nice I'm cold as ice in the dead of
winter

[Chorus]

You were my summer now here comes the fall
I used to want you but now not at all
And now that it's winter now that you're gone
I'm so cold, so cold

You were my summer now here comes the rain
Wanted to love you but never again
But now that it's winter now that you're gone
I'm so cold, so cold

[Bridge x2]

You were my summer now winter is gone
And now I'm so lonely without you my baby
You were my summer now it's so much colder
I'm lonely without you my baby

[Chorus]

You were my summer now here comes the fall
I used to want you but now not at all
But now that it's winter now that you're gone
I'm so cold, so cold
You were my summer now here comes the rain
Wanted to love you but never again
But now that it's winter now that you're gone
I'm so cold, so cold
