her neck is so slender her curves just break my heart i dont need no love babe i got my guitar my girl left me last night i dont know where to start i know ill feel better when i pick up my guitar i'm in love i'm in love i'm in love with my guitar ill never forget the day i first picked up my babe i held her in my arms i listened to her sing another week gone by a friday at home i dont really care, with her im never alone

i'm in love i'm in love i'm in love with my guitar

another year gone by a date stands up on me my guitar ain't go nowhere she's always there for me i go to a party everyone gets drunk and laid except for me so i go home and play

i'm in love i'm in love i'm in love with my guitar
