Sometimes I feel like life is like an egg
Sometimes hard-boiled, still hard on the edge
It's all scrambled when you're out of luck
Running all over, sunny side up

Watch me rot away
Watch me rot away
Watch me rot all day
Watch me rot away

Watch me now, my life is in the pan
My shell is broken, fix it if you can
I don't know how I'm rotting away
Drowned in grease from the beginning of the day

Watch me rot away
Watch me rot away
Watch me rot all day
Watch me rot away
