

Mary and The Black Lamb "She Is"

Visit "She Is" on MotoLyrics.com

She is nothing they told her today
They want nothing more than her to decay
She searches for what makes her strong whether it's in
a song
Or a kiss from a Luciferish boy

She is a legend unfolding
They haunt her decisions
They voices are screaming
Inside she screams

She is nothing, believes what they say
Cause she's never heard a kind word
She searches for what makes her strong whether it's in
a song
Only therapy she can afford

She falls to her knees in agony
Tries to remember what she believes
How can you lose what's meant to be?
