Turn up the mayhem, turn up the night
Felling so crazy, I love to fight
Time to put on your studs and leather
Time to go out into some heavy weather

Metal knights-live on
Metal knights-rock is gone
Metal knights-stand proud
Metal knights-posers will die

I prowl the streets, looking for sin
Found my steel, so I'll go to length
Too many rockers, posers, and fools
Must have fun, to break all their bones

Metal knights-live on
Metal knights-rock is gone
Metal knights-stand proud
Metal knights-posers will die

You said you had, mayhem in your blood
Last night proved understood
You were thrashing you do belong
Listen to me you can't go wrong

Metal knights-live on
Metal knights-rock is gone
Metal knights-stand proud
Metal knights-posers will die

Metal knights
Metal knights
Metal knights
Metal knights

Wage of mayhem
