For every step forth
I end up one mile back one more strike means one more to pile the stack Lets just say what should be fucking said Tides of blood and anguish ahead

Behold the morning sun now what IÃƒfÃ,Ã,Ã´ve become you try lead but end up out of the way Follow me into solace lets us find another kind of purpose a world where everyone comes with a fucking prize putrid expectations constantly arise let this be a lesson in life you will be dead no matter how you strife

give up the fight
walk into the light
give up the fight

come on now motherfucker
try your fucking luck
I swear IÃƒfÃ,Ã,Ã´ll fuck you up
you cant kill me!

contaminate the debate with all your bullshit disrupt the corrupt
fall into the pit darkmoon rising under shadow veiled sky agenda devising collapse to the cries

walk into light

prepare to declare war on the world sheet to defeat soon be unfurled destiny fulfilled when down on the ground tied up, sliced up, gagged and bound

darkmoon rising over shadow veiled sky
