Baby girl...
I miss you so

I did some things I shouldn't have done
Said some things that were wrong
Girl, I was just too scared to fall in love
I have to cause of my complications
Wore out all your patience
Girl, I don't blame you for being fed up
But then it hit me all at once, when you left
Just like a hundred thousand tons, in my chest
Wishing this pain would go away, and leave me
But it gets worse, everyday, cause baby

I can't let you go, I keep tryin' but I can't girl
It's impossible, I miss you too bad
I can't wish away the pain that I cannot do girl
And all I can say is... I miss you.

Tryin' to tell myself to move on, to grow up and be strong
Girl, I keep thinking bout those better days
So many things I wanna tell you
Like how much I love you
But girl, can't believe you're really gone away
And then it hit me all at once, when you left
Just like a hundred thousand tons, in my chest
Wishing this pain would go away, and leave me
But it gets worse, everyday, cause baby

I can't let you go, I keep tryin' but I can't girl
It's impossible, I miss you too bad
I can't wish away the pain that I cannot do girl
And all I can say is... I miss you.

Reflections in your pain
It's never gonna stop
Little memories I keep it in a box
Keys in the lock
Trapped in my heart
Oh when you left my world
That's when it fell apart

When everything anything I do is true
Reminds me terribly that
I miss you
Yes this fool got more issues
In an average
Don't recieve
Management can't grab it
I'm talking to your pictures like
Answer me...
Favourite songs on the radio
So dance with me
Hold my hand with me
Take that chance with me
Can a capicorn and a cancer be
Unite it
Don't fight it
To get you back in my life
I've tried it
It's obvious
I can't hide it
Gonna win back your heart
I doubt it

[X2:]
I can't let you go, I keep tryin' but I can't girl
It's impossible, I miss you too bad
I can't wish away the pain that I cannot do girl
And all I can say is... I miss you.
