Oh, when we're born now we're all born angels but some of us are strangled by umbilical cables Yeah some of us get so heavy we're not even able What I see on tv, I blessed by my cradle Even tho this is low, lyrically this is bo, as I drift through the sky with the ravens and the crows Just want to get my point across to anyone about to cross, the pearly gates await their (???), shifting keys, shifiting crates Mister Who ain't trying to be preacher, trying to spit my lyrics and maybe they'll reach ya' Kinda' like a blues bird but I use a computer, kinda' like a new bird with bass and a booster Get up in the morning I don't hear no rooster, sirens they hearin' I say he's gonna' shoot her Sorry if you want a melody cuter, but if you listen then you'll hear in the future.

Through lightning and rain, break down the walls and unlock these chains I am the only one, everybody raise your hands to the sun Although we don't know why, most have been trying to touch that sky Somebody left too soon, don't leave me now, move high like a boon

Shark attack, kids with gas, made that lady have heart attack
Don't need a film, just screen the facts, as least as (???) hard (???) Mars attacks Kid get lippy the feddy said don't move London city keep it witty then cruise Well look at the facts I've sold my track, crowds of birds that fly like bats MC's shout, DJ's scratch my tracks Blood's too sticky and it stains my shoes, Brixton hippie in my face I said move

I know, when we're born that we're all born angels but some of us were strangled by umbilical cables Yeah some of us get so heavy we're not even able
