Verse 1:

The wind blows cold again its not what I expected
Feel the ice surround it all
The words that cover me have tried to paint the sky in grey
But you can change it all

Chorus:

You bring the day-light
You light the grey skies
Lift me to great heights
You always stay right beside me

Verse 2:

I crowd my life with things that try to block the light
The world feels colder through it all
But you warm my heart again with love I cant contain Take me lead me past it all

Chorus:

You bring the day-light
You light the grey skies
Lift me to great heights
You always stay right beside me

Bridge:

Help me break out of this cold shell, summer sun soak in
Wipe away the frost around my heart and melt me down again

Chorus:

You bring the day-light
You light the grey skies
Lift me to great heights
You always stay right beside me
day-light
You light the grey skies
Lift me to great heights
You always stay right beside me

Outro:

The wind blows cold again its not what I expected
Feel the ice surround it all
