Verse 1:

They think they know but they dont have a clue
They try to tell me there's no reason to feel how I'm feeling now
Dont want to talk dont want to work things out
Just want to show them whats inside me
To set my soul free

Chorus:

I cry alone sometimes at night
I try but nothing turns out right
I want to love and be the one
To show the world what I'm made of
I want to learn to walk not run
Not disguise the things I've done
Learn to face another day
Honestly

Verse 2:

Holy Father send your angels now
I need your guidance and your love
To shower all over me
I' sick of feeling like I'm on the run
If imperfection is our weakness
Then why cant they see
Oh yeah yeah

Chorus:

I cry alone sometimes at night
I try but nothing turns out right
I want to love and be the one
To show the world what I'm made of
I want to learn to walk not run
Not disguise the things I've done
Learn to face another day
Honestly
