"Eviscerated By The Fiend"

Evacuate the earth! What else can we do?
Evacuate the earth! Time is running short...
No time for repentance, no time for regret - just leave this forsaken ground
The dream about the utopia is just an inversion of the truth

Succumb - the horror, invoke - the end

Evacuate the earth! End all while you can Evacuate the earth! Do not postpone your fate Leave all the chaos, leave all the turmoil - leave this carcass called earth When all hope is lost, close your eyes and fall into the illusion

Succumb - the horror, invoke - the end
