Another grey, fall day
Teetering on the edge of rain
Got my green shirt and jeans
Tearing at the seams
And I sit at this cafe
Wondering which way I'm gonna stray
To get away from the pain of the same old thing

(CHORUS)

Run away with me
As far we can see
Meet our destiny
That's my remedy

Like the ageless sea
Seeking purity

Now I bought another girl sunflowers
Asked for one and they gave me two
They were feeling quite yellow
And I was feeling kinda blue
I haven't felt love in quite a while
Starting to wonder if it's out of style
Or maybe I'm a fool, for letting it go
