Read between the lies of homespun advice

Nothing that you say, let's carry on here

Seething day to day, Its not possible to fray

View it coming anyway, Please carry on here

Let's redesign the goings on, Hey optimism anyone?

We believe the currency of love

We believe the virgin falls in love

Care free the beat'll pass it on,

Please believe the currency of love

Watch your vital signs, Complete the no holds guy

Now you won't be advised, let's carry on here

Resupply ok fine, baby you're right so much more than I can take please carry on here

Let's redesign the goings on

Hey optimism anyone?

We believe the currency of love

We believe the virgin falls in love

Please believe the currency of love

Entertain you

Rearrange you

Forever claim you

Its demanding

Not understanding

But everlasting

Let it soothe you

Creep into you

And all that moves you

Cause you're seeking

Cause you're needing

So start believing

We believe the currency of love

We believe the virgin falls in love

Care free the beat'll pass it on,

Please believe the currency of love
