You know everybody's scared, everybody better beware Scared of spiders, scared of rats, scared of being crossed by cats
Scared of everything that moves and things with cloven hooves

I ain't scared, live my life all right, I ain't scared to stand and fight
I ain't scared 'cause I believe, ain't scared to wear my heart on my sleeve Ain't scared to show my hands but I'm scared of the boogeyman

You can't boogie with the boogeyman, you can't boogie
with the boogeyman
You can't boogie with the boogeyman, you can't boogie
with the boogeyman
Hold out any way you can but don't mess with the
boogeyman

He's hiding underneath your bed, he's hiding inside your head
He's hiding behind your eye, he'd be there until you die Ridin' shotgun in your new transam, slide over for the
boogeyman

You can't boogie with the boogeyman, you can't boogie
with the boogeyman
You can't boogie with the boogeyman, you can't boogie
with the boogeyman
Hold out any way you can but don't mess with the
boogeyman

You can't boogie with the boogeyman, you can't boogie
with the boogeyman
You can't boogie with the boogeyman, you can't boogie
with the boogeyman
Hold out any way you can but don't mess with the boogeyman, hey
