Here we are about to blow a fuse
Hold it down 'cause if you move you lose
Give me time, I need to make mistakes
Give me love before my poor heart breaks

Listen to your heart, understand the [Incomprehensible]
Listen to your heart before you say good-bye

Don't you see, truth is always close?
Eyes are wide, just like you've seen a ghost

Give me hope 'cause I was never sure
Give me faith 'cause I was never yours

Listen to your heart and don't tell me no lies
Listen to your heart tell the truth or die
Listen to your heart, listen all of you life
Listen to your heart and then you'll be alright

Raise your hand if you deserve the blame
If you can, then you won't die ashamed

Give me strength so I can make a stand
Give me light so I can show my hand

Listen to your heart, look me in the eye
Listen to your heart before you say good-bye
Listen to your heart tell the truth or die
Listen to your heart and then you'll be alright

[Incomprehensible]
Listen, listen, listen
Listen to your heart
Come on
