He moves so slowly but he's going up on you
Nowhere to hide and not a thing that you can do
You're on his mind, you're on his mind

You're losing human race
You know you can't stand the pace
Gonna sink without a trace
He's gonna steal your face

Don't try to run, he's gonna find you day or nights
Just sit and shiver and be ready for the bite
You're on his mind, you're on his mind

You're lost in hostile space
You're gonna feel the cold embrace
You're in a state of grace
He's gonna steal your face, steal your face, babe

[Incomprehensible]

Don't try to run, you know he's never far away
Knows where you are and he gets closer every day
You're on his mind, you're on his mind

And I'll bet that he can't wait
You know he's gonna take the bait
Gonna be on your case

He's gonna steal your face
He's gonna steal your face
He's gonna steal your face
He's gonna steal your face
Steal your face, steal your face, steal
Steal your face, steal your face
