I'll take any drug in the whole damn world if you'll only
notice me
Mainline poisons by the score - please will you notice
me
I'll break any law, hurt anybody - for God's sake notice
me
Cut my wrists and slash my face for Christ's sake
notice me
I'll drink anybody into the ground if you'll only notice
me
I'll kick the teeth out of anyone here - come on and
notice me
I'll wear the clothes and cut my hair - please will you
notice me
I'll be a pop star and I'll stand on stage - for God's sake
notice me
Ch: Who told him that it mattered?
Who told him that anyone cared?
He's got an overgrown sense of his own importance
No one's really bothered around here
He was such a quiet boy, never any trouble before . . .

I'll get a big car and drive like a maniac - please notice
me
I'll make a lot of money and tread on you if you'll only
notice me
I'll tell you any lies you want to hear - for God's sake
notice me
Or I'll kill myself while you are watching
