"Going On"

In every morning I just feel like I don't know so many words so many places where to go?
Is like the Matrix no beginning and no end and I'm surrounded by these voices saying in my head
That I know

There's something going on with my life
and I don't seem to know if it's right There's something going on in my head and I don't think that anyone understands

I try to take a look all over in my past Don't see a thing it's like it never has been there but then again I hear these voices in my head you know just what they say so I won't repeat again because you know

There's something going on
with my life
and I don't seem to know if it's right
and I don't think that anyone understands

Don't you try to help me now because you don't know how

There's something going on in my head
and I don't think that anyone understands
