When the end comes, it's beginning
When the scared runs, we're winning
When the door's closed, we're set free
Are you one of those or are you with me?

When the sun sets we wake up
No matter where we get, we won't break up
We stand tall, we're head strong
You better step aside or come along

We're the last ones
Let's stand up
We fight guns with our hands up
They're the cowards
We are rebels
We got the power to fight the devil

We got burned bad, we've got the fire
We have learned that we are desire
If we want it and got our heart's set
We gotta give it all we've got or live to regret

We're different, both you and me
Unlike the rest of them, we choose to be
I'm not ashamed, no I'm damn proud
It's time to clear the air and shout it out

We're the last ones
Let's stand up
We fight guns with our hands up
They're the cowards
We are rebels
We got the power to fight the devil

Let's march right out of this godforsaken place
Take back control and stand up straight
We played by the book now we do it out way

We're the soldiers of tomorrow and we're here to stay!
We're the soldiers of tomorrow and we're here to stay!
