Chorus:

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine

Always said IÂ'd be alright
If I just open my heart
My hands canÂ't find the door

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine

And IÂ've tried to push you through the door
But your feet never quite leave the floor
You stay though you might drowned

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine

Hit and run though thereÂ's time to stay
But I know itÂ's gonna hurt either way
You could not read the signs

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine

Always said IÂ'd be alright
If I just open my heart
My hands canÂ't find the door

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine

And IÂ've tried to push you through the door
But your feet never quite leave the floor
You stay though you might drowned

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine

Hit and run though thereÂ's time to stay
But I know itÂ's gonna hurt either way
You could not read the signs

Down, down, down you fall
I took the parachute ainÂ't it cruel
PlayinÂ' jester with your heart
And making you the fool
ItÂ's nobodyÂ's fault, but mine
