There's a bird in my heart
And it wants to learn to fly
There's a word and if it's silenced
It will surely die

I wanna live where love lives
I can't take if I can't give
Love lives in the sound they make
In the tears of a thousand rains

Though the long road make you sweat
But the short road make you bleed
There's a price you're gonna get
You take just what you need

I wanna live where love lives
Where I feel that I can work it
That's where I'll find my house to sleep in
Don't hurt the heart of a girl
Trying to find my place in this world

What lies beyond the horizon
I know something is arising
I wanna live, I wanna live
I wanna live where love lives

I wanna live where love lives
I can't wait, is this my time?
I wanna live, I wanna live
I wanna live where love lives
Where love lives
