Where have I been? Lock me in again
I made you scream and shout, because of doubt again
You wonder why I had to lie again
The truth is, darlin', I'm afraid to love

Ooh
I've cheated and I've lied
But I never really tried
So wait, don't go
I'm not leaving you no more
Close the door

I've found my light, but where is he tonight?
The wall before my heart falls apart tonight
Now he has left, so I can't get no rest tonight

Tell me darlin', ain't that love?

Ooh
I've cheated and I've lied
But I've never really tried
You say, you're darn
That my actions made you numb, like me

Oh, tell me darlin', ain't that love?

Ooh
I've cheated and I've lied
But I never really tried
You say, you're darn
That my actions made you numb, like me
But now you're free
But lonely
Like me
I'm sorry
