You're so far away
But somehow I can feel you anyway
It's only been today
I wish that time would have stopped
So I could have stayed

Oh, maybe I'm not guessing it's time
What if baby I just want you to be mine
Oh, it hurts when something beautiful
Has to end before it starts
I thought I packed it all
But I forgot my heart

I'm so far away
The flower probably died, but it's okay
This might be in vain
But if I was with you

This is what I'd say

Oh, though I'm kinda lonely I feel fine
Because I done the discovery of old times
Won't you come a little closer
And I'll give you a clue
Oh, I figured out that happiness equals you

Oh, though I'm kinda lonely I feel fine
Because I done the discovery of old times
Won't you come a little closer
And I'll give you a clue
Oh, I figured out that happiness equals you

Oh
Oh
