summer sun on my windowsill, i sit and think and wonder, you know that i miss you still thou we were never lovers (x2)

hear that girl the rains pouring soundtrack to our forgotten story, reminisce sometimes seeing the world through loves eyes your friend was my sunshine, til i realised you eclipsed her now i miss ya, never together we wish to sow, but whatever the weather you kept me afloat, my first kiss landed right her, shit havent thought about that in years, now its all coming back so clear, ghosts in my past, lying with the phone in the dark, talking shit just to hear you laugh, wild horses are what you told me, til we drift apart and i still think of your face everytime it rains and i wonder in a different time and place could we find a way to one and another, and i still think of your face everytime that it rains and i wonder, in a different time andplace could we find a way to one and another.i was cleaning out my room, found a note that you wrote me, said i hope we can be together one day like the label name, but some things dont stay the same. and i saw you just the other day, we didnt have much to say, butwhen i touched your arm we began to spark, for a split second its like nothings changed, now im not saying we would of worked but whos to say if we wouldnt work that we couldnt of made something real, reminisce of the way that you made me feel.

and i just wanted to let you know that i never meant to let you go,
i just wanted to let you know that i never meant to let you go. (x2)
and it goes..

wonder,
you know that i miss you still thou we were never lovers (repeated)

..said i just want you to know that you are so beautiful (to me) (repeated)

i just wanted to let you know that i never meant to let
you go (x6)
my hearts like a metronome it beats strong in my chest giving me new hope like the fourth episode i guess we'll never know but i just wanted to, i just wanted to, i just wanted to let you know that i never meant to let you go.

woohhhooo woohoooo woohhhoooo woooooohhhooooo wooooohooooo.
