Hi, this is Natalie
Leave a message after the beep
And I'll give you a call back
Remember if you don't leave a message
You never called
Thanks

Aye, yo, Nat what's up, girl
I ain't heard from you in a while
Tyrin to see what's up with you
Get at me man
Holla

Message will be saved for 14 days

I got your message today
I was happy to hear your voice
Automatically saved
When it comes to you, I had no choice
Why must i act like I don't wanna call you back
I stayed up last night, waiting for the phone to flash
It wouldn't be right if i called so fast
Let a few hours past, see if my patience can last

Everytime you call me up I'm playing hard to get
I really wanna pick up, I keep hitting end
I don't know what to say, you got me speechless
Leave a message babe
Maybe at a better time, when I can get on the line
And tell you what's on my mind
Then we can conversate, maybe we can conversate

Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me
Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me

Now it ain't my style to have you guess how I feel about
you
I'm always thinking about you, I'm always talking about
you
And i wanna let you know I have the words
I end up all jittery
And all the words I can't control what you do to me
All it takes is one little thing
I hear a ring, I see your name

Everytime you call me up I'm playing hard to get
I really wanna pick up, I keep hitting end
I don't know what to say, you got me speechless
Leave a message babe
Maybe at a better time, when I can get on the line
And tell you what's on my mind
Then we can conversate, maybe we can conversate

Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me
Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me

Here's how I'm gonna tell you
I'm gonna call you up tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Be up-tight and honest with you
If I'ma do it tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
No more holding back or acting shy
I'm gonna call you up tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
let you know you're the one i like
If I'ma do it tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight

Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that that you would come and hold me
Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me

Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby
When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me
Baby, I know you might think that I'm just playin'
You don't see the smile I get, baby

When my phone rings, when you call me
I really wish that you would come and hold me
