I don't believe a word you say
You lying, worthless motherfuckers

You spread your twisted version of the truth
Like a disease through the population

Infecting everyone you come into contact with

Stop feeding us your lies

You're a group of pompous asses
Unthinking automatons
Spouting forth your ignorance
Lying to our faces
Do you take us for fools?
We see right through your deception

You drive a wedge between the people of this world
You've spent your life sowing the seeds of discord

Divide and conquer
Your method of control
Keep us all in fear

Keep us fighting each other

Hear what you want us to hear
See what you want us to see
Controlling our subjective reality

Disinforming
Desensitizing
Creating apathy
Draining our energy

Hear what you want us to hear
See what you want us to see
Controlling our subjective reality

Divide and conquer
Your method of control
Keep us all in fear

Keep us fighting each other

Misery magnified
Suffering glorified

You drive a wedge between the people of this world
You've spent your life sowing the seeds of discord
