"To Each His Own Pain"

slowly, open the eyes, to see th esuffering all the visions lost, as all the pain is gathering Sleeping in fear for my life, never awake but dreaming insane, darkened, morbid, my dreams shall not leave me

slowly, open the gates, shadows appear again into my pain I walk, a sinister anguish descends agony piercing like nails, i suffer to please myself turn inside of your mind, and heaven shall be hell...

receive the pain
stand to be alone
going insane

I behold the stains of blood upon my throne for all is pain

stare around, your ruined world walk among the dying ones infected with sorrow

sadness devours
no day of tomorrow
the eternal darkest hour

walk my dreams in endless journeys torment my soul and i shall smile for death is certain i know my hell, my pain, to me my own (pain)

the eternal darkness hour
