Let there be light!
It is not myself.
You stubborn fool you will not open your eyes to see,
the light I have to give you life and to set you free!
I wish I could tell you everything you seem to know, but it won't mean a thing.
It's not myself, not of myself.
I cannot do this on my own.
It's not myself, not of myself.
I bow beneath your throne.
You will not survive (something life or death lol)
I wish you'd turn to the one who holds your every breath.
Open your eyes if you will!
Heal thyself, if you can!
It's not myself, not of myself.
I cannot do this on my own.
It's not myself, not of myself.
I bow beneath your throne.
This is your last chance, turn back, turn back.
This is all you have...Let it go, let it go!
Fall on your knees!
Bow down your head!
Now raise your voice, for here comes your...salvation!
(Absolutely nobody in the band but caleb know what he is saying here...)
He opened my eyes, now I see!
He healed my soul, now I'm free!
