"Better To Be Silent"

Visit "Better To Be Silent" on MotoLyrics.com

Stop! I don't wanna feel a pain anymore
Just beating a note and stick around
You don't have lie, you don't have to pretend
The scents of your mouth is the world of bulshit

Just ask something to be broken shoes
Just tell me the truth for the money

Words lie, only the eye who speaks from heart
Theres nothing else to do to convince me
You don't have cry, you don't have to die
You just have to look your face on the water

Its better to be silent, than to speak without a thought
