I've no reason to close my eyes cause I don't want to lose my chance tonight to see you for the last time and make you smile so let me keep this tears for us forever

What a story for tomorrow without you here, without your hair and I want you to know, knowing my loneliness

Make a new concept of nothing in my mind just like a little boy with no friends at all sad, sad, sad, tears only tears not beers waiting for sunrise without you and hopes to rise

Look at a photograph when we got a good night and we walk along with my sister It's such a beautiful night to see you for the last time

What a story for tomorrow
without you here, without your hair and I want you to know, knowing my emptiness

Make a new concept of nothing in my mind
just like a little boy with no friends at all
sad, sad, sad, tears only tears not beers
waiting for sunrise without you and hopes to rise

Please stay with me only just for tonight We'll sing along this song and I always be remember the melody of this remedy In my memory...
