I'm so stupid, I'm so dumb
I Blame myself for loosing you
Theres no point in changing

Close my eyes and breathe in deep
I'll just try to go to sleep
Maybe even wake up happy

I feel like im falling through a whole
Whats at the bottom I dont know
I need something to hold on to

Whatever happened to my friends
Whatever happened to innocence
I guess its time for me to go
Just when I think I'm gonna win
Is when it all starts up again
I slip and stumble

When theres no hope to pick you up
Just things to bring you down
It hits. Like no one cares
The world is over, I've lost
Falling endless
It won't get better, God I'm sorry
This is my poem, this is the end
