You got the key
My private number
Exclusively
There's no other heart for me

You're the combination
The secret word that unlocked my door
The remedy to ease the pain
You're everything that I've been wishing for

You keep a smile on my face My heart's in overdrive But when the others try to get inside (Get inside) I've got nothin' to say And that they're wastin' time just idle talkin' They could never fill this space 'cause

You got the key (You got the key)
My private number
Exclusively
There's no other heart for me

I've got an unlisted telephone So anytime I hear it ring It has to be you that's calling Don't have to hide behind the answering machine

I'd like to feel your way
For making shadows in the night
And through the curtain lace your light is seeping
It shines bright as the sun
You always leave a trace of what I'm thinking
You'll always be my number one 'cause

You got the key (You got the key)
My private number
Exclusively
There's no other heart for me

You got the key (You got the key) My private number Exclusively
There's no other heart for me

Anytime I feel that we Can make you love connection You'll never find a busy sign The line is clear to my affection

Private number Private number Private number Oh, oh, oh

You got the key My private number Exclusively There's no other heart for me

You got the key (You got the key)
My private number
Exclusively
There's no other heart for me
