Heard from the walls that you're missing loves sanity.
Scary how forgettings now all a part of healing.

Don't give me up on me now;
You're afraid of being left out.

Don't stay mad at me 'cause I am just a man on paper.
Leave the light on for me now;
I'm coming home someday

Here in this bottle my heart on a letter's string..
'cuz love and life on this side of the earth
and passion still, it moves me.

Don't give up on me now;
Yeah I'm afraid of being left out.

Don't stay mad at me 'cause I am just a man on paper.
Leave the light on for me now;
I'm coming home someday.

I've been gone, gone forever.
Just hold on, hold on forever.

Same kind of empty, it keeps me here reeling.
Scary how with time and doubt one loses all feeling.

Just don't give up on me now;
I'm afraid of being left out.

Just don't stay mad at me cause I am just a man on paper.
Leave the light on for me now.
I'm coming home someday;
Oh no, I'm coming home, so

Don't be mad at me cause I am just a man on paper.
So leave the light on for me now;
...Coming home.
