Even though, we said goodbye,
Quite some time ago
There's a strength, of love in my heart
That just can't let you go
It seems like even when i go to see
Images of you my mind still keeps

And I still see you in my dreams
No matter how I try it seems,
That a deep part of me, just can't forget
That a big part of me, still has regrets
And I can't seem to let,
All the love I had for you go
Yes I still see you in my dreams

Sometimes, I wait with your face in my mind
Somehow, I thought that I left those memories behind
It's seems that you have left my heart frusturated
With vivid memories your smile created

And I still see you in my dreams
No matter how I try it seems
That a deep part of me, just can't forget
That a big part of me, still has regrets
And I can't seem to let,
All the love I had, for you go
I still see you in my dreams
Yes, I still see you in my dreams
