Most days, I've got my act together. No way some little somethings ever getting under my skin.

Most days, Im pretty easy going. I stay in charge of my emotions

But every now and then. I admit...

I'm not an angel or a saint.

Somedays I can be a pain.

It's practically impossible to please me.

I can go ballistic on ya, blow a fuse without a warning.

Fly right off the handle.

Ya, believe me, Im not easy to love.

But he does.

He knows when to keep his distance, and when I need someone to listen. He's my best friend.

He smiles the world is off my shoulders. We slide just a little closer. He knows who I am .

Even when...

I'm not an angel or a saint.

Some days I can be a pain.

Its practically impossible to please me.

I can go ballistic on ya, blow a fuse without a warning.

Fly right off the handle.

Ya believe me, Im not easy to love.

But he does.

I'm not an angel or a saint.

Ya, I can be a pain.

Its impossible to please me.

Yeah. I can go ballistic on ya, blow a fuse without a warning. Fly right off the handle.

Ya believe me, Im not easy to love. But he does.

Oh yea he does.

Oh he does.
