She walks with confidence,
sings to no audience.
Her heart has never seen her sleep.
She's never met a stranger.
She's patient, slow to anger.
I find it hard to believe...
that she could fail to see
that the boy she wants and needs
is right beside her.

So I sing, sing whenever we're apart.
And I'll sing until I win her heart,
with the hope that she'll see that her and I belong.
When she hears my song.

She laughs at any joke
prefers pepsi to coke,
and I can't get her out of my mind.
She's always quick to love,
her hand fits mine like a glove,
but with each passing day I find...
that she fails to see
that the boy she wants and needs..
is right beside her.

So I sing, sing whenever we're apart.
And I'll sing until I win her heart,
with the hope that she'll see that her and I belong.
When she hears my song.

So I sing, sing whenever we're apart.
And I'll sing until I win her heart,
with the hope that she'll see that her and I belong.
When she hears my song.

[girl]
Said he sings whenever we're apart..
and he sand his way into my heart.
And then I could see, together we belong..
when I heard his song.
