I once loved a sailor
Once a sailor loved me
But he was not a sailor
Who sailed on the wide blue sea

He sailed in an airship
Sailed like a bird on the wing
And every evenin' at midnight
He would come to my window and sing

Come take a trip in my airship
Come sail away to the stars
We'll travel to Venus
We'll sail away to Mars

No one will see while we're kissing
No one will know as we swoon
So come take a trip in my airship
And we'll visit the man in the moon

One night while sailin' away from the crowds
We passed through the Milky White Way
While idly drifting, watching the clouds
He asked if I'd name the day

Just by the Dipper, I gave him my heart
The sun shone on our honeymoon
We swore to each other, we never would part
And we'd teach all the babies this tune

Come take a trip in my airship
Come sail away to the stars
We'll travel to Venus
We'll sail away to Mars

No one will see while we're kissing
No one will know as we swoon
So come take a trip in my airship
And we'll visit the man in the moon

Come take a trip in my airship
Come sail away to the stars

We'll travel to Venus
We'll sail away to Mars

No one will see while we're kissing
No one will know as we swoon
Come take a trip in my airship
And we'll visit the man in the moon

Come take a trip in my airship
Come sail away to the stars
We'll travel to Venus
We'll sail away to Mars

No one will see while we're kissing
