Asleep under the snow

Dream a way of following Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â
Â Â Â Â

A place we can unfold and I'm sold we're on our way

Heather has a breeze

Tides are shimmering

Reflecting all the heat that's arrived for the day

You could coast away and you'll be fine

All of what I know

Falling backwardsÂ

To a honeycomb far away beneath the sea

You were less untold

Falling backwardsÂ

Is all I'll ever knowÂ so lets split towards the sea

You could coast away and you'll be fine

All the nights seem over run

Fall a little farÂ

Far away from home

All the bloodshed tears and smiles

I won't see the world a little far from

So leave that world behind...
