They'll tell you everthing's gonna be okay
I wish that couldn't make your problems go away
You always diss me on the phone, but i don't even care
I said I'm so far
Watch TV while I stare
Hey!

I knew you couldn't make me go away
Oh babe, your mom stopped to say,
"God damn kid, stay the fuck outta my house!"
And you go out with all your friends and you'll hang out at the mall
We'll go play pinball
And hold radio meetings by your car

Now don't think that your mind's gone
I'll sing you and I a song
We can hang out and eat melon
When's your birthday and your motto?

They'll tell you everything's gonna be okay
I wish that couldn't make your problems go away
