If only for tonight,
Yeah, I could dig myself a grave
But even 6 feet down
I know I'd be found feelin' this way
If only I could find
Yeah, just a reason to believe
That there's nothin' that's up your sleeve
You know, you're wearin' that tank top
Love me or leave me but just not behind
We don't need money the way we spend time
'Cuz if it's real tonight,
You and I could really be somethin'
You'll go fast, I'll go slow
Meet you in the middle just to let you know
That it's gonna be alright, (it's gonna be alright)
If it's me and you tonight (if it's me and you tonight)
Are you ready now
You'll go fast, I'll go slow
Light my fuse and your body explodes
It's gonna be alright (it's gonna be alright)
Are you ready now, I'm ready now
If only I were bright
And I could let go of my brain,
Put a tourniquet on
And your sweet injection into my vein
And oooooooh, that's the stuff
And I say that you're the drug,
12 steps wouldn't be enough to kick
You're just that rough

Make me a crazy I just can't define,
There's not a closet for you in my mind.
But you puzzle me tonight,
Let's play with your bits and pieces
You go fast, I go slow,
Meet you in the middle just to let you know
That it's gonna be alright, (it's gonna be alright)
If it's me and you tonight (if it's me and you tonight)
Are you ready now
You go fast, I go slow
Put her in drive and the car just goes

It's gonna be alright (it's gonna be alright)
Are you ready now, I'm ready now.
(Baby) Ooh I'm gonna take my time (I need you baby)
If you stay with me once again, once again
It's a heaaaaaaaaart attack, heart attack
Cuz I want you so bad (ooh I want you, too)
But I hope it's like (it's like)
You go fast, I..go..slow.
You go fast, I go slow,
Meet you in the middle just to let you know
That it's gonna be alright, (it's gonna be alright)
If it's me and you tonight (if it's me and you tonight)
Are you ready now
You go fast, I go slow
Light my fuse and your body explodes
It's gonna be alright (it's gonna be alright)
Are you ready now, I'm ready now.
Uh huh, are you ready now..? x4
