I loved him so much
Now he went away
Nothing much left to say
But I? Still try to carry on
Through all this stress and pain
But I?

Bridge:
Still love him
Still need him
Everything seems so perfect when He loved me
But now he?s gone

Chorus: You never realize how good you got it
Until it all goes away
Then you cry yourself to sleep
Thinkin? you slipped so deep
And cant get out of it

Life just has its way to kill you
Make ya broken hearted
Wishing it just never started
But then you find that that?s all you've ever wanted

Bridge: Still love him
Still need him
Everything seems so perfect when He loved me
But now he?s gone

Chorus: You never realize how good you got it
Until it all goes away
Then you cry yourself to sleep
Thinkin you slipped so deep
And cant get out of it

I loved him
He loved me
But now... Why do this have to be this way?
Its like it was never gonna happen
But then he just says it so slowly
So painfully

So cold
It hurts inside...

Chorus: You never realize how good you got it
Until it all goes away
Then you cry yourself to sleep
Thinkin you slipped so deep
And cant get out of it

Can?t get out of it?
Just cant forget it?
Can?t get out of it?
