"Out The Door"

Shot by bedroom eyes
And that screaming silence frozen fire hypnotize
And I can't disguise the words that I steal from your lips
Who rants them for your body by your finger tips
Then just so be it
And I walk out the door
I walk right out the door
And next to you
And I never asked for more
I get my fix if I get close to you
With just a dose of you
We're both fried
We feast on poisoned apples and I'm just inside
But I'm petrified
Oh I take my time and you're the clock
And that second hand you place on me
My heart could stop
And it's tick tock tick tock
And I walk out the door

I walk right out the door
And next to you
Cause I needed to
And I never asked for more
I get my fix if I get close to you
With just a dose of you
Every single day I remember you would take away
Even if it's wrong
And I walk out the door
And I walk out the door
I walk right out the door
And next to you
Cause I needed to
I never asked for more
I get my fix if I get close to you
With just a dose of you
Every single day I remember you would take away
Even if it's wrong
And I walk out the door
I walk out the door

And I walk out the door
