Damn girl!
Shananay come over here,
look at this hoe! ooooooooo baby!
Look at you all pasty like the Pillsbury doughboy.
You make me wanna poke you in the stomach and go ?pah-hoo.?
Pssst Shananay you best be watchin your cholesterol.
Did you say cresentroll?
Mmh. Oh I?m sorry baby, you just need a tan.

People say, everyday but she's taking you away and I wish you'd leave her everytime I see her

I ask you why, why did she lie about the times with all those other guys?
I can see it a mile away that you're with her everyday

The nights that you just missed,
the things that you promised they never stay (staaaay)
She's never seen the sun, she wears shorts and I run
awaaaaay

He's dating Casper and he's afraid to ask her for his manhood back
please give me my friend back.
He's dating Casper, his heart races faster just for her
why can't we be like we were?

First you skip, but now you slip sure is sexy that she got ya whipped Just a puppet to sing from low and she's using it all for show

Back in the day, we come and play now you're asking if you may did you see that she's not the one she can't even see the sun

The nights that we just missed
the things that you promised they never stay (staaaay)
she's never seen the sun, she wears shorts and I run
awaaaaaay

He's dating Casper, and he's afraid to ask her for his
manhood back
please give me my friend back
He's dating Casper, his heart races faster just for her
Why can't we be like we were?

I'll ask her, will she rip my heart right out
Will she hurt me once again, will you ask her?
I'll tell her that's not why I'm all about
Now stop hurting all my friends, we're O.k!

He's dating Casper and he's afraid to ask her for his
manhood back
please give me my friend back
He's dating Casper, he's heart races faster just for her
Why can't we be like we were?

Please go away!
Away!
Why Can't we be like we were?
