With a pawnshop eyes and a second hand frown she sat silent at the table Her boots were brown, should she leave town
To play the role of lover ex-patriot
A nod to the waiter, always her flirty behavior,
You know she always gets one on the house
She pulls out a letter from a bag Under her sweater and before she reads she straightens her blouse

There's a passion in being alone A grace in a loveless time
There's no new cross, there's no new sign only the sun and the changing tide

And out of respect, well really must confess I never lost your number I never [Girl From The Pawn Shop lyrics on ] lost your address

And if we remain friends at best Sometime later no, no not yet we'll smile and remember it like this

She put back the letter, one tear falls like a feather and disappears on this bar room floor
The gratuity included, you know the letter concluded

P.S. All my love
