Seven less sorrows, seven more mistakes
Seven things to borrow, seven more to take Seven times I've fallen, seven times I'm up
Six times I've wondered, where was one more
Why did I sleep so late
Lost my mind seven days straight
If I go for seven more
Paint an eight on my door

Sevens windows and seven doors
Seven sisters and seven boys
Seven full words and seven lines Same old story same old crime
Why did I sleep so late
Lost my mind for seven days straight
If I go for seven more
Paint an eight on my door

Why did I sleep so late
Lost my mind for seven days straight
If I go for seven more
