When he goes loneliness will be everywhere
When he goes are you gonna be there
Like a bird on the wind sailing over an angry sea
I'll be looking for land be an island for me.

Lover man if you could take my heart Lover man we would make a brand new start
'Cause I'll be left with a broken heart
When he goes
when he goes
when he goes
Lover man the moon will shine again
Lover man will soon be mine again
We'll begin the good times again
When he goes
when he goes
when he goes

When he goes yesterday will be a rainbows end
When he goes I'll be needing a friend
Leave me cry like a child
Let me lean on your shoulder too
And I'll come round in a while
And sing my love songs to you
