Here's a chance to come a live
To fill that emptiness inside
To be redeemed and regain your pride
To kill the pain and to see the light
For all the times that you felt so low
Well, here's a chance to let it show
Here's a sound to make your day
A chance for you to get away

I do and I don't and I will and I won't
And I might, just tonight, try to cover it up

This ain't no heartache
Oh it's real trouble
This ain't no heartache
Oh oh oh oh

Here's a chance to come alive
To fill that empty hole inside
To kill the pain and to see the light
To stoke the fire and refuel your pride
How many times did you did you feel so low
Well, here's a chance to let it go
Here's a sound to make your day
A chance for you to get away

I will and I won't and I do and I don't
And I might, just tonight, try to cover it up
[x2]

This ain't no heartache
No, you're in trouble
This ain't no heartache
No, it's real trouble

This ain't no heartache
No, you're in trouble
