I can't remember your face anymore
That too is lost
Your cold ashes scattered on the wind
And swept across the permafrost

A dying feeling grabs hold of me
Gotta wait for it to disappear
Another year will pass me by
While I'm still here
Defined and driven by fear

Am I already out of touch?
Wait a minute, I want so much just to feel
I wanna be where the feeling can find me
Are you with me?
Defined and driven...

I do not think that we are through
I reconciled myself with you
But every single day we grieve the things
That could have been
Are you with me?

I wanna be where the feeling can find me
Defined and driven by fear
Defined and driven by fear
Well, I'm here...
Defined and driven by fear
(Well, I'm here...)
Defined and driven by fear
(I wanna be where the feeling can find me)
